

AUTHORIZED ECONOMIC OPERATOR:

In the international context of economical and commercial operations, there are necessary regulations for transactions that must be obeyed, as well as requirements of transparency, verification and guarantees.

It is essential for the commercial development to be able to guarantee a good practices management system in the chain of goods international supply.

The figure of the Authorized economic operator establishes rigorous security measures in the supply chain as well as it facilitates the goods flow making these operations more efficient.

To have a Authorized Economic Operator certificate means to be considered as a trustful organization in regards of our professional activity in matters of customs, as we comply the most rigorous criteria in matters of management of information systems, goods security, compliance of customs regulations and economic-financial management, which make us a commercial partner of maximum trust for our customers and suppliers.

ADVANTAGES FOR OUR CUSTOMERS:

- Rapidity in the goods transactions and better adaptation of the service to customer.
- Improvement of the built-in logistic services.
- Better management and reduction of the risks derived from the international supply chain.
- Simplification of the international commerce operations made with companies located in the countries of the commercial partners of the European Union.
- Guarantee and security, Tax Agency entrusts of carrying out the audits, which guarantees the financial solvency and reliability of our organization.
- The mutual acknowledgement of the AEO Certificate by all the countries that apply a similar program (Japan, Switzerland, Andorra, Norway, United States, etc.).